

Solist

cultural projects

Anna Tseimazidou

Founder

Cultural Projects Maker.

Anna Tseimazidou is a musician and producer. She graduated from the Conservatory of Pireus Association and got a piano diploma with professor ,the distinguished musician George Manesis. At the same time she completed her studies in Chamber Music with the internationally renowned cellist Lefteris Papastavrou

After finishing her studies she travels to New York where she stays for a year following all the new trends in the field of arts

When she returns to Greece she creates an educational program for adults entitle “ Employees and Music”. In collaboration with the HR departments of big companies teaches to working groups basic principles of music Morphology , History and Organology in order to help participants better understand the wonderful world of music and watch music more easily.

These courses were very successful with the participation of an impressive number of employees. Some of the companies were Unilever – Trofektekt – DDB Needham advertising- Interamerican Insurance etc.

To 1996 she founded the cultural projects agency Solist that was active in the field of organizing concerts and artistic events, providing integrated services and organizing many successful projects

Anna has designed large projects in emblematic spaces like Odeon of Herodes Atticus, Athens Concert Hall, Ancient Agora , Citylink Gallery, historical buildings and others.

She has invited for concerts great soloists such as Bruno – Leonaldo Gelber, Dame Moura Lympny, Julian Lloyd Webber, Midori και and many others.

In 2019 with the collaboration of Base Hologram L.A– as part of a European tour – she invites in Greece and organizes in Athens the high – tech digital show “ Callas in Concert – The Hologram tour”