

Solist
cultural projects

Solist undertakes design, organization and production of cultural events within the frameworks of cultural, corporate and social events, on behalf of private companies and public institutions.

The founder and the head of the agency is Anna Tseimazidou, with many years of experience in the field of cultural events as musician and producer.

Forms of our events

Concerts & Performances : concept, organization and production of concerts and artistic events.

Artists invitations on behalf of public institutions ,big organizations and private companies for their events

Collaborators

Our emphasis is always placed on high quality and aesthetics, but also on the optimal organization and implementation; for this reason, we collaborate with distinguished professionals from Greece and abroad: orchestras, soloists and composers, directors and scriptwriters, actors and performers, set and costume designers,, light and sound designers, choreographers and dancers...

Venues

Events are held in selected concert halls and theatres (Odeon of Herodes Atticus , Athens Concert Hall, etc.) and in other appropriate venues, depending on circumstances (e.g Gallery Spiromiliou in the Commercial Centre CITY LINK, Megaro Mela - National Bank of Greece, Old Stock Exchange, Institute of Medical and Biological Research of the Academy of Athens, Gallery Attalou at the Ancient Agora under the Acropolis, Hellenic Yacht Club etc).

Local event management

In the field of local event management, the agency provides full services for the organization and the production of artistic events on behalf of foreign companies, operating as the client's local "office" and representative.
